FAMILY TRIP · 2 ADULTS + 1 CHILD (AGE 8) · DEPARTURES FROM TEL AVIV 6–12 JUNE 2027

Greece for Shavuot 2027

Shavuot falls on Thursday evening 10 June to Friday 11 June 2027, and school is out Thursday and Friday. Each destination section opens with a table per length of stay: the five hotels that best fit a family brief of 4★ or 5★, plenty for children inside the hotel, and a base from which the history and landscapes are reachable without long drives. Every row is a flight + hotel package that was on sale for that window when the sites were scanned.

Prices are totals for the whole family (2 adults + 1 child (age 8)) in US dollars, with shekels at the day's rate. Package totals come from the selling site for one room, flights and taxes included. Eshet's dynamic packages default to a Sky Express connection via Athens; where a row relies on one, the site's own surcharge for a direct flight has been added and the row says so. All of these prices move daily; the links open the live offers.

Hotel facts come from the hotels' own sites, Booking.com listings, tour-operator pages and review summaries; a line reads "not confirmed" where a fact could not be verified. Red flags are hard constraints such as adults-only sections, no beach access, or works announced for 2027.

Crete

~1h50 from TLV to Heraklion (HER); Chania (CHQ) also served in summer. A rental car is the practical choice (airport pickup, ~€40-60/day in June). The Heraklion–Hersonissos–Malia coast road has a frequent KTEL bus (every 20-30 min, ~€3), so hotels on that strip work without a car. Organized half/full-day excursions sell at every hotel desk.

GROWN-UPS: HISTORY AND LANDSCAPE

- Knossos Palace – Minoan palace, 5 km south of Heraklion, 25-35 min from Hersonissos
- Heraklion Archaeological Museum – The Minoan collection, pairs with Knossos
- Spinalonga island – Venetian fortress and leper colony island, boat from Elounda/Plaka, 45 min east of Hersonissos
- Lassithi Plateau and Dikteon Cave – Mountain plateau with windmills and the cave of Zeus, 1 h from Hersonissos
- Rethymno old town and Fortezza – Venetian harbour and fortress, 1 h west of Heraklion
- Chania Venetian harbour – Best old town on the island, 2 h from Heraklion
- Samaria Gorge – 16 km gorge hike, full day, from the Chania side
- Elafonisi and Balos beaches – Pink-sand lagoon and the Balos lagoon, far west, full-day trips
- Agios Nikolaos – Lake-town, 30 min east of Hersonissos

KIDS: OUT OF THE HOTEL

No beach of its own: the public sand-and-pebble beach of Analipsi lies across a small coastal road in front of the resort (Thomas Cook; guests describe a small, calm, partly man-made hotel section that is safe for children), while Jet2 lists 500 m to the beach; the hotel keeps a zone of sun loungers and umbrellas there (charge not confirmed); Blue Flag not confirmed.

GETTING AROUND

KTEL Heraklion-Malia buses (2-4 per hour in summer) stop on the old national road in Analipsi village about 1 km inland and guests report a 20-25 minute walk to the stop; taxis, car hire and an excursion desk at the hotel not confirmed; Heraklion airport 19-20 km, 20 min.

Gouves Water Park Holiday Resort

★★★★★ strong fit Kato Gouves, Gouves (18 km east of Heraklion) · hotel website

Mitsis Faliraki Beach Hotel & Spa

★★★★★ strong fit Faliraki, on the main Faliraki beach at the centre of the resort (Afroditis street), east coast 14 km south of Rhodes Town · hotel website

Central-Faliraki 5* with the sandy beach on the doorstep, a kids' pool with 2 slides, the Storyland club 10:00-18:00 for ages 4-12, a nightly kids' disco, 7 restaurants and the bus stop in front for Rhodes Town (Booking 8.9/10 from 338 reviews, TripAdvisor 4.6/5 from 3,407, ranked 65 of 509 Rhodes hotels). Minus: reviewers call the rooms small and dated, the cheapest 4-person room is a 25 m2 open-plan quadruple with bunk beds, and the resort is lively and can be noisy.

FOR THE KIDS AT THE HOTEL

- 3 outdoor freshwater pools plus a shared pool for the swim-up rooms and 16 private pools (the hotel's '20 freshwater pools'), children's pool integrated into the main pool; the new Club 8 pool club with a 50 m heated pool is outside the all-inclusive and charged extra

Akti Imperial Deluxe Resort & Spa, Dolce by Wyndham

★★★★★ strong fit Ixia (Ialyssos), Ialyssos Avenue, north end of Ixia 4 km from Rhodes Town · hotel website

Big ultra-all-inclusive 5-star (about 710 rooms) at the Rhodes Town end of Ixia with four outdoor pools including a lazy river and a kids' pool with slides, a daily 4-12 Mini Club plus Teen Club, mini disco and cabaret nights, paid 7D cinema and escape rooms, 4 km from the Old Town with a bus stop 50 m away (Booking 8.2/10 from 330 reviews, TripAdvisor 4.2/5 from 3,744 reviews with Travelers' Choice; rank not confirmed). Minuses: a 2+2 family must take a 41 m2 suite because standard rooms sleep 3, the beach is pebbly and windy, and the resort doubles as a convention centre.

FOR THE KIDS AT THE HOTEL

- Children's pool with water slides (number and height limits not published); no separate aqua park
- Four outdoor freshwater pools (main pool with the animation, a lazy-river pool flowing into it, the quiet 'Snail' pool and the kids' pool) plus an indoor heated pool; pools open 10:00-18:00

Atlantica Aegean Blue

★★★★★ strong fit Kolymbia (1 Parision Street), southern end of Kolymbia bay below Tsambika mountain on the east coast, about 28 km south of Rhodes Town · hotel website

The biggest kids' set-up of the three: an aqua park with lazy river, 4 pools, kids' club, mini disco, playground and the beach directly below the gardens, all-inclusive with Greek, Asian and Italian a la carte options (Booking 8.8/10 from 391 reviews, TripAdvisor 4.5/5 from 3,839, ranked 76 of 509 Rhodes hotels). Minuses for this family: the big slides are for over-12s at least 1.20 m tall, the beach is shingle, and the entry-level family room puts the children in a bunk-bed niche behind a partial partition.

FOR THE KIDS AT THE HOTEL

- Aqua park with a lazy river and several slides (slide count not published by the hotel; search snippets say six): baby pool for ages 0-6, 'Jungle' slides for ages 6-12, the other slides for over-12s at least 1.20 m tall (hotel regulations), so the 6-year-old is limited to the baby pool and Jungle section; free access, with the Splash Pool Bar for kids at the water park entrance
- 4 pools: main outdoor pool, outdoor activity pool, 'Blue Pool' infinity pool and a baby pool heated in April-May and September-October; lagoon-style pool with mini waterfalls and water jets, open-air jacuzzi for over-12s

- Playground (ages 3-11) and a games room (extra charge)
- Mini disco; daily live music and evening shows at the Mesogeios Pool Bar
- Kids' buffet and early suppers in 2 restaurants (Take the Family); Chilly's Gelateria with over 15 gelato flavours and popcorn for kids; Thalassa buffet with live cooking plus Asian, Greek meze and Italian pizza a la carte; high chairs not confirmed
- Babysitting not confirmed

- Anthony Quinn Bay and Ladiko – 13 km, 18 min

- Valley of the Butterflies – 21 km, 30 min; Rhodes Aquarium – 28 km, 40 min and boat trips from Mandraki harbour – 28 km, 38 min (excursion boats from Kolymbia's small harbour not confirmed)

BEACH

Kolymbia's sand-and-shingle Blue Flag beach lies directly below the resort (hotel: 'step right onto the beach'; Booking: beachfront, nearest beach about 150 m; Thomas Cook: within 100 m), with hotel sunbeds on the beach, a beach taverna and no road to cross; Take the Family calls it shingle and TUI describes the neighbouring Aegean Park stretch as rocky, so expect pebbles underfoot and at the sea entry; wind and waves not reported in the sources read

GETTING AROUND

KTEL's Kolymbia Beach line (stops K1-K18 along Eucalyptus Avenue; the nearest stop to this hotel is not confirmed, Kolymbia centre is under 1 km) runs to Rhodes Town about 14 times a day (07:45-20:15 in the October 2026 timetable, roughly hourly, about 50-60 min), 6 times to Lindos, 3 to Tsambika beach and 6 to Kallithea Springs; the main-road Kolymbia crossroads stop 3 km away has 18 Rhodes Town and 15 Lindos buses a day.
